

The Man With the Gun Much In Evidence This Week

The gods that look after the wild things have not been very kind to them during the past two days when they sent a rain in the mountains to afford splendid opportunities to the hunters, but the latter have been thanking their lucky stars, and have filled the forests with the reports of rifles, many shots of which have taken effect, as is proved by the number of deer that have fallen victim to their prowess.

Practically every day this week hunters have returned with deer, some of whom have reached the limit, while others could have shot another, but postponed that pleasure for another day. Robert Herrin and Bob Warner came in Wednesday with three to their combined credit, and Ira Reeder got two in one day.

Not satisfied with the fine seven-pound buck he shot near Wagner Butte the other day, Rev. C. F. Koehler and sons, Fred and Paul, came home Wednesday bringing the meat which they had stripped from the bones in their knapsacks, and after stocking up with cookies, peaches and every good thing the manse larder afforded on short notice they took to the hills again and are still in pursuit of the wily deer.

Phil Sargent came in from the woods this week with a hard luck story. He shot and killed a deer, only to find it had been wounded three times before and was unfit to eat.

Not only are deer unusually plentiful, but reports state that the forests are alive with other game and birds.

HOP PRICES GO TO TOP LEVEL

(Special to The Tidings)

SALEM, Sept. 5.—All hop prices records of Marion county were shattered here when A. C. Connor, G. B. Connor and S. J. Connor disposed of their crop to McNeff Bros. of Portland, for 54 cents a pound, which on the present crop means about $900 per acre. Other growers have contracted with the same buyers for delivery of hops at 50 cents per pound and up.

FOREST PATROL TO HAVE PART IN FLEET WELCOME

EUGENE, Sept. 5.—Today and tomorrow the western Oregon aerial fire patrol will be suspended while the ships based here go to Portland to take a part in welcoming the fleet on its visit to the Oregon metropolis. Weather permitting, the flight to Portland will be made some time today and the planes will remain over Saturday.

Four ships, all DeHavillands, will make the flight from the Eugene base, and it is possible that another plane which is expected in from Mather field may be included. This plane, if it reaches Eugene in time, will go on to Portland with the rest of the aerial fleet. The order to go to Portland came yesterday from Colonel Arnold in San Francisco.

Those to make the trip are Lieutenants Webb, Goldsmith, Wright, Batten, Ridenor and Roeder; Sergeants Blanton, Thomas, Stacey and Fisher, and Private McGinn.

GREAT YARMOUTH.—Summoned to attend a patient late at night, a municipal doctor consulted a plan of his district, and found he lived half in and half out of the area. The patient's bed was exactly 27 feet from the borough boundary, and the doctor refused treatment. He was upheld.

SEND HIM BACK TO CALIFORNIA

(Special to The Tidings)

MEDFORD, Sept. 5.—Bound over to the grand jury under bonds of $1000, Willis E. Carter, charged with the theft of $250 worth of auto tires from the Medford service station last week, is in the county jail awaiting the arrival of officers from Los Angeles to return him to California, where he is wanted on a more serious charge. It has been decided to turn him over to the California authorities because of the fact that he can be sent to the penitentiary for a longer term on the southern charge than for the local crime with which he is charged.

GALLOWAY QUILTS JOB

(Special to The Tidings)

SALEM, Sept. 5.—Charles Galloway, state tax commissioner, resigned today to accept a position with a Portland bank. Frank Lowell, secretary of the tax commission, will be his successor on October 1. Assessor Fisher of Linn county succeeds Lovell.

INFORMATION FOR AUTOISTS

The road bulletins of the Automobile Club of Southern California are on file in the Commercial Club and may be seen at any time. Road conditions in California are well covered by these bulletins. Road conditions in Oregon are changing so fast that a bulletin soon becomes out of date. See the secretary for information. Send autoists inquiring for road information to the club, if you are unable to answer his questions.

All the road maps of the coast are at the club for distribution.

Any party going to Crater Lake should have one of the 1919 booklets, which may be obtained at the club room upon request or without requests if no one is in. Help yourself.

Information concerning camp grounds up and down the line furnished.

Full information concerning road conditions, mileage, etc., of side trips out of Ashland.

WILL DIVIDE CITY IN TWO DISTRICTS

Beginning next Monday, September 8, the Ashland Laundry company will divide the city into two districts. On Monday the driver will make calls for washing covering that portion of the city south of the Plaza and Ashland creek. And on Tuesday the driver will call for washing in all portions of the city lying north of the Plaza and Ashland creek; however, calls will be made every day in the business district for hotel washing and other bundles. This is for the purpose of giving better and quicker service, the old method of trying to cover the whole city on Monday being too slow and expensive, and very unsatisfactory.

AMERICAN CRIPPLES TAKE WORDS OF CHEER TO TOMMIES

(By the United Press)

NEW YORK, Sept. 4.—Two of America's most famous cripples, Michael J. Dowling, Olivia, Minn., and Quentin D. Corley, Dallas, Texas, were presented July 25 to King George of England at the royal garden party, according to a letter received by the Red Cross Institute for Crippled and Disabled Men from Mrs. Ethel Wood, former secretary of the British ministry of pensions. Dowling, who lost both legs, his left arm and several fingers of his right hand in a blizzard at the age of 14, and Corley, who lost both arms in a railroad accident, were invited by the British Red Cross society, by arrangement with the American Red Cross Institute, to visit England to cheer up the thousands of disabled Tommies in the reconstruction centers there.

At a meeting of some 2400 disabled soldiers, Dowling and Corley related stories of their struggles to overcome their handicaps. Prince Albert addressed the soldiers.

HOP PICKERS ARE BUSY

(Special to The Tidings)

SALEM, Sept. 5.—Hundreds of hop pickers have left Salem in the past few days for the nearby fields, where experienced pickers are able to make from $3 to $4 per day, growers paying from 1 to 1½ cents per pound for picking.
